

Green Coffee Beans

Synthite offers an entire range of ingredients sourced from non-roasted green coffee beans. These products are widely used as an ingredient in nutritional supplements, food and beverages as well as personal care products.

The major anti-oxidant in green coffee beans, chlorogenic acid, has been shown to significantly stabilize blood sugar levels, and beneficial for other health related complications.

Synthite range of products from Green Coffee

Product Name	Specification
Green Coffee Extract	50% Chlorogenic Acids
Green Coffee Extract	30% 3 Caffeoylqunic Acid

Application:

Dietary supplement for weight management and blood sugar control, slimming creams in cosmetic.

